after we have fitted you with glasses and you will be pleased with the attractive appearance. The reason is that in fitting glasses I not only supply right glasses to correct the optical defects, but also to suit the features. Patrons are coming a long way, even from other states, to get the benefits of this splendid optical service.

Society

Miss Martha Kidd left Monday for her home in Lynchburg, Va. after spending several days with Miss Elizabeth McComb.

With Miss McComb

The initial meeting of the O. O. Club was held last evening with Miss Elizabeth McComb. Three tables were arranged for a social hour. Decorations were suggestive of Halloween, and fortunes were told in the hall by a ghost. After the game a delicious salad course was served. Special visitors Miss Janie Lyerly, Messrs. Bureau Neill, Robinson and Nolan Sigmund and Dr. Scott.

Miss Wolfe Hostess

Miss Estelle Wolfe was hostess to the Mission Study Class of the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. A. P. Whitener, president of the class, presided. Mrs. J. W. Shuford gave an extensive talk on the mission work in Mexico. During a social hour a salad course and ice tea were served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Miss Lulalee Wolfe. Invited guests were Mesdames Hefner and Shorte. Mrs. B. P. Seale will have the next meeting, Nov. 14.

Mrs. Henkel Host

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. T. L. Henkel pleased with several piano club, twelve members responding to roll call. Visitors were Mesdames W. R. Bradshaw, E. N. Carr and J. H. Lattimore. While fingers were busy with needlework Mrs. O. G. Henkel pleased with several piano sections, Mrs. E. N. Carr entertained with two readings and Mrs. Joe Abernethy read an extract from the autobiography of O. Henry. Decorations were suggestive of Halloween and delicious two course refreshments were served by two ghosts who also bade the guests a spooky good-bye at the door. Mrs. A. S. Abernethy will have the next meeting.

Halloween Party

The Do-As-You-Please Club entertained most elaborately last evening at a Halloween party at a vacant house on Thirteenth avenue. The house was lighted by jack-o'-lanterns and decorated in witches, black cats, owls and other things pertaining to Halloween. Bobbing for apples, fortune telling, fishing for fortunes, roasting chestnuts and toasting marshmallows were thoroughly enjoyed. At 11 o'clock a delicious supper of sandwiches, fruits, nuts and candies was served. The centerpiece on the dining table was a huge pyramid of fruit. The list of club members and the invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ronda C. Buchanan, Misses Frances Gettner, Mary Allen, Gladys Reid, Kate Elliott, Constance Bost, Emma Bonner, Louise Bost, Charlotte Smith, Lenore Sourbeer, Claire Sellers, Adelaide Johnston, Cecelia Turner of Radford, Va., and Messrs Joe Murphy, M. Loy Bork, Robert Martin, Orin Sigmund, Aldis Henderson, Cecil Bost, George Packvelder, W. C. Newell of Charlotte, Richard Shuford and David Taylor.

Meets in Newton

The meeting of the Limited Auction Club yesterday afternoon was the occasion of a pretty Halloween party at the home of Mrs. L. F. Long in Newton. Little Miss Mary Katherine Zellers, a winsome fairy amid the witches and goblins opened the door for the guests. The rooms were profusely decorated in black cats, pumpkins and specks of all descriptions. Shells were drawn and the lights and candles cast a weird glow over all. The tables were numbered by pictures of little pumpkins and the score cards bore the same grinning faces. Halloween pins were given as souvenirs. After the game the guests found seats at the seven tables by means of clever little Halloween place cards. The hostess assisted by Misses Annie Bell and Charles McCorkle served a delicious three course luncheon. Mrs. E. Bryan Jones was awarded the prize for making the highest score, Mrs. W. A. Hall the club prize. Mrs. G. N. Hutton and Mrs. Charles Sherrill consolation prizes. Those playing were Mrs. Zellers of Ottaway, Ind., house guest of Mrs. Long, Mesdames E. L. Shuford, Frank Cooper of Iron Station, J. H. P. Cilley, Walker Lyerly, G. N. Hutton, W. A. Hall, J. L. Riddle, M. H. Yount, George Yoder, Herbert Yount, E. Bryan Jones, H. C. Menzies, N. W. Clark, O. M. Royster, F. A. Henderson, P.

A. Abernethy, R. A. Grimes, F. P. Abernethy, W. H. Farrar of St. Louis, McCorkle, Clyde Rowe, P. O. Carpenter, Will Abernethy, Ralph Little, Charles Sherrill, Clarence Clapp and Frank Williams.

BLUE RIDGE WINS

Blue Ridge School of Hendersonville defeated Christ school on the latter's grounds at Arden by a score of 19 to 3. The game was tight and fought by both sides. Features for Blue Ridge were, Sample making gains by end runs, and the defensive work of Allen on end. Blue Ridge handled the forward pass well, being successful with three out of five passes from Sample to Swink. Lott played good ball also. Features for Christ school were the end runs of Clayton and the line plungers, and the tackling by Tuggle and Lackey, the breaking up of forward passes by Pinner and the whole team showed up well. Christ school will play Blue Ridge school again next Monday.

LINNEY AT NEWTON

It was Mr. Frank Linney and not Mr. Thomas W. Bickett, who will speak at Newton Saturday along with Mr. John J. Parker, as was erroneously announced in this paper. The error was obvious.

Don't fail to see the Red Feather Photoplay "The Way of the World" at the Pastime Thursday, November 2nd.
